OSF Preferred Skilled Nursing Network

It has been a blessing for us here at OSF to have cared for you during your recent hospital stay. As you transition to the next stage in your healing process, it will likely involve a skilled nursing facility, like a nursing home. Choosing the right one is a critical decision for you and your family.

The care you expect ... the quality you deserve.

The OSF Preferred Skilled Nursing Network is a select group of skilled nursing facilities – including nursing homes – that meet stringent quality and safety standards set forth by the Centers for Medicaid & Medicare (CMS) and OSF HealthCare. These facilities undergo bi-annual reviews to ensure the highest level of care is maintained.

These standards include:

- ★ 4 or 5 Star Overall Rating from CMS
- ★ 3, 4 or 5 Star Quality Rating from CMS
- ★ RNs in-house 24/7
- ★ Ability to start an IV 24/7
- ★ Able to admit a patient within a two-hour window

By choosing an OSF preferred facility, you and your family will have the reassurance of knowing that an OSF physician will continue coordinating your care, providing a seamless care transition that can be helpful during times of stress, injury or sickness.

Non-OSF Network Facilities

It's important to know that you do not have to choose an OSF Preferred Skilled Nursing Facility. For your convenience, we've listed area facilities that are not part of the OSF Preferred Network. Understand, however, that OSF cannot continue the coordination of your care in facilities which fall outside of the network.
